On Wednesday 27th July, BBC Radio 4’s Gardeners’ Question Time is setting out to host the LARGEST audience in the programme’s 64-year history.

Join Eric Robson and our panel of gardening experts at the Blackpool Winter Gardens and make GQT history.

Appearing on the panel are ‘Landscape Man’ Matthew Wilson, The One Show’s Christine Walkden and renowned horticulturalist, Matthew Biggs.

This is an un-ticketed event and people will be admitted on a first come, first served basis. There are 3000 seats in total. Blank question forms are available in advance of the recording – details below.

Gardeners’ Question Time is a Radio 4 institution, attracting over 2 million listeners a week. Recorded in a different location each week, this long-standing radio programme has answered well over 30,000 questions since its inception in 1947.

The panel members have been guests of a diverse range of gardening clubs and other groups, including Leyhill Open Prison, the Palace of Westminster and a nudist club in Wales.

The panel NEVER see the questions before the recording. Their encyclopaedic, seemingly effortless answers are completely spontaneous and reveal their huge experience and depth of gardening knowledge! Being on the GQT panel is not for the faint hearted!

Doors open 5:30pm. Photographers invited for 6pm. For more details contact:
